

Devon & Cornwall Police's Chief Constable's Foundation grants money to local charity

Devon & Cornwall Police's Chief Constable's Foundation has given a grant of £6000 to Pete's Dragons, a local charity which supports those who have been affected by suicide. Their work aligns with the Force mission to help the most vulnerable in our communities.

Pete's Dragons provide highly skilled and experienced training and consultancy through workshops and courses in all aspects of suicide bereavement and wellbeing.

View full article here: <https://news.devon-cornwall.police.uk/news-article/3d04692d-f99f-ee11-9d5e-6045bdd24049>

To find out more about Pete's Dragons, visit their website: <https://www.petesdragons.org.uk/>.