Chairman's Report

The Chairman had circulated his report (attached) in which he highlighted the fact that when the hall had been able to open people were keen to book and use the hall which it is hoped will happen again after the end of latest lockdown. Committee members felt this would be the case as The Vitality Chi, the Monday Art Club and others had shown an interest in restarting. He also reported that oil had needed to be ordered and this was in hand. Thanks to Ann Bogle for her contribution during her time as a committee member.

The chairman thanked Keith, although he had retired as caretaker, for keeping an eye on the premises

Treasurer's Report

Ron had circulated his report (attached)

One observation was that events income was down greatly, mainly due to the COVID19 but looking back to the Carne to Cove productions, who take a fixed figure and percentage of takings, which leaves us unable to make a good margin.

He suggested that we might be able to advertise the facilities the hall has to offer maybe using some of the grant money. The Chairman thanked Ron for the way he presented his report which made it easy for a lay person to understand.

The decision of an earlier committee meeting had been confirmed and it had been agreed to continue to furlough Katy the cleaner.

The Government Grants had been of great help to the hall during the surreal year we had experienced. Thanks went to Ron for applying for the grants and for all the work he did during the year.

Resignation of Officers and Committee

The committee stood down.

Election of New Committee

The new committee was elected en mass to stand for a further year and to continue in their offices.
